

Stress is a necessary part of life. And sometimes it comes from positive things such as a new baby or big job promotion. Once the excitement wears off, the worries can settle in.

If you'd like help adjusting to a "new normal," EAP offers confidential support for managing:

- Stress, anxiety and depression
- Parenting and family needs
- Workplace concerns
- Sleep issues
- Substance abuse

How does it work?

Call to speak with a specialist who will listen to your needs and connect you to the appropriate resource, whether it's a clinician, counselor, mediator, lawyer or financial advisor. You can either take advantage of short-term counseling or get a referral for more extended care. And, we'll try our best to accommodate any gender, language or cultural preferences.

What's a clinician?

A clinician may be a psychologist, or master's-level specialist trained in social work, professional counseling or family and marriage therapy.

How much does this cost?

As part of your benefits, EAP services are available at no extra cost to you. This includes referrals, seeing in-network clinicians, access to liveandworkwell.com and initial consultations with mediators or financial and legal experts.

Want to retain a lawyer after your consultation? You'll get a 25 percent discount.

What other resources are available?

You and your family also have 24-hour private access to liveandworkwell.com. This interactive website offers tools and resources to help you enhance your work, health and life. On the site, you can:

IT'S IMPOSSIBLE

— to be stressed —

WHEN THINGS ARE GOING WELL.

TRUE OR FALSE

FALSE.

Even good things can cause stress.
